Official Biography

Jessica Nazario is a distinguished entrepreneur, international speaker, and business leader with more than 21 years of experience. As Fractional CEO of Top Talent International, Jessica has expanded her influence into media, strategic partnerships, business development, and international markets. She serves as President of the Top Talent Local Orlando Chapter, fostering professional growth, visibility, and meaningful business relationships.

Jessica serves as an Assistant Producer on two documentary projects with Top Talent International, supporting impactful storytelling and global exposure. These projects are in post-production and expected to release December 2026 and early 2027.

In September 2026, Jessica participated in the Kenya Keynote Tour, delivering inspirational messages to thousands of students across Kenya through school visits and humanitarian outreach. She and fellow speakers also visited prisons to share messages of hope. Her international engagement included television interviews with Look Up TV Kenya and Kenyatta University Television (KUTV).

Her media appearances include ABC's Las Vegas Morning Blend, ABC's Tampa Bay Morning Blend, a New York Stock Exchange interview (Bloomberg Television — New to the Street), and Florida 360 TV on El Sol Network TV. She has been featured in the NYC Independent ("26 Women to Watch in 2026"), San Francisco Daily Press, and multiple editions of San Juan Social Magazine — The Magazine of Puerto Rico.

Jessica's professional achievements include an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters in Business, the 2026 International Women's Day Proclamation from Puerto Rico Governor Jennifer A. González Colón, the 2024 Woman of Impact Award from Matiz Internacional Corp., and the Million Dollar Circle Award from Attorneys' Title Fund Services.

Her leadership extends across nonprofit and international business communities. She serves as Vice President of Matiz Internacional Corp., a partner of the San Juan Social Club, and Liaison & Business Development Advisor for the Global Chamber in Central Florida and Puerto Rico, promoting strategic partnerships and economic opportunities.

Deeply committed to community service, Jessica volunteers for political campaigns, nonprofit organizations, church leadership initiatives, and disaster relief efforts — reflecting her belief that leadership is measured not only by professional success, but by the lives positively impacted.

Jessica is currently writing her first book, and her television show has been approved to air on Tampa Bay 28 (WFTS-TV). Guided by faith, purpose, and a passion for empowering others, she remains committed to building bridges, elevating leaders, creating opportunities, and inspiring meaningful change worldwide.
